The Inductive Method

Observation

What does the text say?

Overview

Establish Context by determining Historical Background

Where does it fit in the Bible timeline?

Ask: Who, What, When, Where, Why, and How?

Make simple lists of people, places, and events mentioned in the text

Make simple lists of key words that are used throughout large portions of the entire book

Determine Book and Chapter Themes

Mark questions to return to later for future study

↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓

Chapter Studies

Ask: Who, What, When, Where, Why and How?

Make more thorough lists of people, places and events

Make more thorough lists of Key Words in chapter or section

Ignore chapter divisions when the theme is carried forward

Mark Contrasts, Comparisons, Expressions of Time, Terms of Conclusion

Beginning of Interpretation: Tie this all together by examining text verse by verse

Outline or complete Structural Analysis to break down difficult text

Examine meanings of Key Words as you study verse by verse

Meditate on text to determine paragraph themes

↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓

Interpretation

What does the text mean in correct context?

What principles do I see that tie to other sections of scripture?

Complete Cross References of those passages of scripture

Complete examination of Key Words: meaning, tense, voice

Notice and examine meaning of verbs & descriptive adjectives

Note commands and warnings

Consult commentaries after completing your own study

↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓

Application

Based on correct interpretation of the text:

What must I do?

How can I apply this truth to my life?

How does this affect me?

How does this better knowledge of God change me?

Meditate on scripture and Memorize important, applicable passages of scripture

What do I see? What does it mean? How does this change me?

Digging in: Observing, Interpreting & Applying the Text

Read and study prayerfully each day. “Prayer is really a key to effective Bible study. Learn to pray before, during, and after your reading of the Scriptures. Prayer is especially crucial when you come to a place in your study where you are stuck and confused.”<sup>1</sup>

The Text: Everyone studies in their own unique way; therefore, there are several study options for you to choose from to assist you in studying Philippians 4:10-23.

- (1) If you prefer to work from one marked copy, remove the working copy at the end of the Overview material, place it in a three-ring binder, and use it for our entire study of Philippians.
- (2) If you don't like the above option, the text will be printed throughout this material; therefore, you can use this Study Guide alone. The entire book of Philippians is printed at the back to help you keep this section in context within the book.
- (3) Or, use your own bible and simply refer to this material for study suggestions.

This week we will focus in and observe Philippians 4:10-23 carefully and thoroughly.

The importance of careful, thorough Observation continues:

“The more time you spend in observation, the less time you will need to spend in interpretation, and the more accurate will be your results. The less time you spend in observation, the more time you will need to spend in interpretation, and the less accurate will be your results.”<sup>2</sup>

To observe the text thoroughly ask who, what, when, where, why, and how of the text. Always look for the obvious. Slow down to see what is actually there in the text, not what you think is there. Repeated, significant words and phrases, which are crucial to understanding the text, are always important. A key word or phrase is one that is vital to what the author is attempting to communicate. These essential words unlock the meaning of the text.

What words or phrases are significant in this particular section?

As you read through the book and completed the Overview you will have noted that, in addition to the words that are significant in the entire book, there are key, significant words specific to each chapter or section. On pages 4 and 5 you will find directions to guide you through your initials observations of Philippians 4:10-23, which is given in two different translations.

As always, use any study suggestions that help you; skip those that don't.

Day One, Focus on this: What do I see (Observation)? We'll learn what it means later.

Contemplate the text in at least two translations. Observe the details.

Philippians 4:10-23 (NIV, 1984)

10 I rejoice greatly in the Lord that at last you have renewed your concern for me. Indeed, you have been concerned, but you had no opportunity to show it. 11 I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. 12 I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. 13 I can do everything through him who gives me strength.

14 Yet it was good of you to share in my troubles. 15 Moreover, as you Philippians know, in the early days of your acquaintance with the gospel, when I set out from Macedonia, not one church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you only; 16 for even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent me aid again and again when I was in need. 17 Not that I am looking for a gift, but I am looking for what may be credited to your account. 18 I have received full payment and even more; I am amply supplied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent. They are a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God. 19 And my God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.

20 To our God and Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Greet all the saints in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me send greetings. 22 All the saints send you greetings, especially those who belong to Caesar's household.

23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

1. Read Philippians 4:10-23 above and on the facing page. Read it in each translation. Reading a text in more than one translation reveals new things to us. Read thoughtfully. Read contemplatively. Read like you've never read it before. Compare the wording of each.
2. Write down observations and questions so you can investigate them later. Mark it up.
3. Read the entire book of Philippians to set our text in context (pg. 17-19). As you read, notice the sections where Paul already discussed the topics addressed in this final part of the letter.
4. Remember what you observed about the main themes of the entire letter. Circle or underline the components of 4:10-23 that carry these themes forward.
5. Notice things you want to study in greater detail later and make a note in the margin.
6. (See the information on outlining, pg. 13, and make an outline if you'd like.)

What do you see? Look at the text. Circle your observations or jot them in the margins.

- Paul returns to their generous gift. Complete #3 above, noticing Epaphroditus and the Philippians' gift. In Phil. 1:1-4:9, circle each place the gift and Epaphroditus are mentioned.
- Notice Paul's back and forth in tone as he writes about their gift. What are his two concerns? What is the similar theme or tone of v. 10, 14-16, and 18-19? What about v. 11-13 and 17? What is Paul trying to accomplish with this back and forth? We'll make our initial observations according to Paul's two concerns. Continue on the bottom half of pg. 5

Philippians 4:10-23 (ESV)

10I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at length you have revived your concern for me. You were indeed concerned for me, but you had no opportunity. 11Not that I am speaking of being in need, for I have learned in whatever situation I am to be content. 12I know how to be brought low, and I know how to abound. In any and every circumstance, I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and need. 13I can do all things through him who strengthens me.

14Yet it was kind of you to share my trouble. 15And you Philippians yourselves know that in the beginning of the gospel, when I left Macedonia, no church entered into partnership with me in giving and receiving, except you only. 16Even in Thessalonica you sent me help for my needs once and again. 17Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that increases to your credit. 18I have received full payment, and more. I am well supplied, having received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent, a fragrant offering, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasing to God. 19And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. 20To our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

21Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me greet you. 22All the saints greet you, especially those of Caesar's household.

23The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

THANK YOU FOR THE SUPPORT:

- You may recall from our overview, that the church in Philippi experienced poverty. In v. 10, what do we learn about a period when they were unable to support Paul financially?
- In verse 14, what have they done that is good/kind? As he writes, he's known them about a dozen years. In v. 15-16, what do we learn they did after Paul left Philippi, went to Thessalonica, to Berea, and finally headed toward Athens, Greece from Macedonia (Acts 16:1-17:15; 18:5—this was due to the Philippians' gift brought by Silas & Timothy, 2 Cor.11:8,9 says)? Do you recall this from our overview? What new information is provided that we didn't learn in Acts?
- In v. 18, how does Paul describe the provision of their gift? How does God view the Philippians' financial offering? From where does Paul draw this imagery? In v. 19, what does Paul promise God will do on their behalf?

GOD MEETS ALL OF MY NEEDS ALSO:

- According to v. 11, what does Paul say about his needs and his attitude? What has he learned? From his years in Christian ministry, what does he know and what has he learned, v. 12? From whom does he draw the strength to have this attitude and to do everything else as well, v. 13?
- In verse 17, what does he say his primary concern is? What is he looking for/seeking? What happens spiritually when the Philippians give sacrificially in support of Paul?

THE CLOSING:

- To whom is the glory given in both v. 19 and 20? What are the glorious riches in Christ Jesus?
- In v. 21, who is to be greeted? Who sends their greetings? From v. 22, what do we learn about the church in Rome where Paul is imprisoned? Who has been brought to Christ by the advance of the gospel (1:12-14)? Does this statement make the location of his imprisonment certain?
- What type of a blessing is having the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ with their spirit (and ours), v. 23? How does this provide the power, desire, and ability to do everything Paul has written about and commanded within the letter?

Day Two, Key words: What do I see (Observation)?

1. Read through Philippians 4:10-23 thoughtfully one more time. Determine what the key words and phrases are for this particular section. [If you're using the working copy from the Overview, you will see the words you already marked in the Overview—those that were crucial to interpreting the entire book.] Focus in on the significant words in this section. A key word or phrase is one that is crucial to understanding the meaning of the text.
2. So what other words are crucial? Consider the questions you answered and meditated on from pg. 4. What words that helped you answer those questions are crucial to understanding the text? What words, if you removed them from the text, would remove the meaning or intent of the passage? What words tie this passage to Paul's overarching purpose and focus in this letter?
3. Mark the words you now understand to be crucial—the words that have definitions you must know in order to understand the text.

HOW: Use color or pencil or ink, whichever you prefer. Mark each key word with a unique mark for that particular word (a different color for each key word, or a different way of circling it, or drawing a box around it, or any other creative mark you want to use for each particular word). The purpose of marking is to help us see what's there. (1) If you are using the working copy you used to complete your Overview, you will see that some of these words are marked already—words that are significant for the entire letter. (2) If you're not using the working copy, use the text on the facing page (pg. 7), or (3) complete this exercise in your own bible. Or do any combination of the three; it's entirely up to you.

Mark these words with unique markings for each one:

- God, Christ Jesus, Holy Spirit
- Author (including pronouns [we, I], Paul and Timothy)
- Recipients (words that refer to the Philippians, including pronouns [you, your])
- Other people (other churches, Epaphroditus, those who send greetings)
- Key/Significant Words observed and marked during the Overview (refer to the Overview material, if needed)
- Other Significant Words which are crucial for understanding Phil. 4:10-23: concern(ed); have plenty/living in plenty/even more (all the same Greek word); amply supplied/will meet (all the same Greek word); credited to your account; share; words related to suffering/want/hunger, etc.

Mark any words that are crucial for determining the meaning.

4. Make lists of details you observe about each key word. Are any used elsewhere in the letter? What is written about each? Ask who, what, where, when, who, and how?
5. Pay attention to what the text says about the people you marked when you completed the Overview and in this exercise. Make additional notes about them on pg. 7.
6. Do you notice anything new that you missed before? What do you observe?

Philippians 4:10-23 (NIV, 1984)

10 I rejoice greatly in the Lord that at last you have renewed your concern for me. Indeed, you have been concerned, but you had no opportunity to show it. 11 I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. 12 I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. 13 I can do everything through him who gives me strength.

14 Yet it was good of you to share in my troubles. 15 Moreover, as you Philippians know, in the early days of your acquaintance with the gospel, when I set out from Macedonia, not one church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you only; 16 for even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent me aid again and again when I was in need. 17 Not that I am looking for a gift, but I am looking for what may be credited to your account. 18 I have received full payment and even more; I am amply supplied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent. They are a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God. 19 And my God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.

20 To our God and Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Greet all the saints in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me send greetings. 22 All the saints send you greetings, especially those who belong to Caesar's household.

23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Jot notes & observations here:

Day Three: What do I see (observation)? What does it mean (interpretation)?

Mark Grammatical Phrases: This exercise will help you see how the main ideas of this section tie together. Note these with marks in the working copy or in the copy of Phil. 4:10-23 on the facing page.

-  Mark words of contrast (but, however, nevertheless, or, neither, nor, not only, whether, etc.) with a lightning bolt mark above the word (or any mark you choose that you feel shows contrast). In the margin of your working copy, write what is being contrasted. For example:

v12—I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation

WHETHER

well-fed OR hungry

WHETHER

living in plenty OR in want

- Mark words of comparison (like, likewise, also, in addition, as, furthermore, moreover, etc.) with an = sign or arrow (or any mark you choose). The comparison in v. 14-15 is a bit tricky to pick out of the text, and it could be debated how best to represent it. Here is one way:

v14-15—it was good of you to share in my troubles

only you shared, sending aid again and again

-  Draw a little clock face (or another mark you choose) above words showing expressions of time (then, when, after, until, in the days, etc.). Why are these words or phrases important?
- Mark with an “x” words that show conclusions or an end result (therefore, so that, for this reason, because, etc.) and draw arrows to connect the linked ideas. What is the author trying to show or prove? What is the conclusion or result he is emphasizing? For example:

I am not saying this because I am in need; FOR I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances.

- Mark the one command in a way that draws the eye, such as highlighting.
  - 4:21, “Greet all the saints in Christ Jesus”
- The New Testament was written in Koine Greek. Due to Greek word formation and syntax, some things would be obvious in the original Greek that are not obvious in English.
  - In the Greek, these words express continuous or habitual action. Mark like this ( ~ ):
    - 4:10, “concern”
    - 4:12, “in need,” “have plenty,” “well-fed,” “hungry,” “living in plenty,” “in want”
    - 4:13, “gives me strength”
    - 4:17, “what may be credited to your account”
  - These words express actions that were completed in the past, but which have an ongoing or continual result. Mark like this ( → ):
    - 4:12b, “I have learned the secret of being content...”
    - 4:18, “am amply supplied”

As you completed this exercise, what was revealed about the passage? Write down anything you discover that you hadn’t seen in the text before. Continue tomorrow.

Philippians 4:10-23 (NIV, 1984)

10 I rejoice greatly in the Lord that at last you have renewed your concern for me. Indeed, you have been concerned, but you had no opportunity to show it. 11 I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. 12 I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. 13 I can do everything through him who gives me strength.

14 Yet it was good of you to share in my troubles. 15 Moreover, as you Philippians know, in the early days of your acquaintance with the gospel, when I set out from Macedonia, not one church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you only; 16 for even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent me aid again and again when I was in need. 17 Not that I am looking for a gift, but I am looking for what may be credited to your account. 18 I have received full payment and even more; I am amply supplied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent. They are a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God. 19 And my God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.

20 To our God and Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Greet all the saints in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me send greetings. 22 All the saints send you greetings, especially those who belong to Caesar's household.

23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Day Four: What does it mean (interpretation)? How does this change me (application)?

Focus now on comprehending the text. Use the following steps. Each person studies differently; but make it a practice to always try new techniques. If a particular step or idea doesn't help, try something else. Come at the text from as many angles as possible.

PRAY FIRST! Ask the Holy Spirit to help you comprehend.

1. What words or phrases do you need to investigate in order to comprehend the text? Question the text (see box below). Determine the words you need to understand. All commands and instructions are significant.
2. Read the word and its surrounding text in another translation. Sometimes just reading the passage stated in another way helps us to comprehend.
3. If the meaning is still unclear, look up word definitions in the concordance. How?
  - Page 12 details “how to use a concordance,” or ask your group leader. There are instructions and additional study helps on the concordance how-to page. A list of simple, free online study sites is also given.
  - For additional help, use your concordance to find other places these same key words are used (called finding the “cross references”). Look up the words that are assigned the same Greek reference numbers. For example, “shared” in v. 15 is Strong’s #2841 or GK (NIV) #3125. Look at other verses that include words that have the same numbered definitions. Consult page 12 for “how to find a cross reference.” Additional help is given about two important words and the language related to OT sacrifices.
4. Next, re-examine each sentence or verse and paraphrase it using the definition. Write it out in your own words to be sure you understand.
5. Then, move on to the next word you want to examine until you have looked up the definitions of each one.
6. Final option: Examine the notes at the bottom of your study bible or in one of the listed commentaries (pg. 15), after you’ve completed the above steps. Try on your own first and experience the joy of discovery; then, find out if you were right in your assessment.

AS YOU’RE DOING THIS: Question the text: ask who, what, when, where, why, and how.

“If you want to understand a biblical text, you’ve got to bombard it with questions. The Bible is never embarrassed to be asked questions. That doesn’t mean it will answer all of them. But you still need to ask to determine if they can be answered. Obviously, if you’re going to ask questions, you’ve also got to look for the answers. Where will you find them? In the text. Observation will give you the basic building blocks out of which you will construct the meaning of a passage. The answers to your questions will come directly from your observation process.”<sup>3</sup>

EXAMPLE: As Paul writes, the Philippians had supported him, off and on, for the past twelve years or so. What had they now done, which prompted these words? What does this tell us about the importance of faithful long-term giving? What does it mean to be in want? What about having plenty? What are the spiritual challenges with each situation? How did they share in Paul’s troubles? Etc.

HELP PAGES

How to use a Concordance:

Complete Word Studies: The Old Testament was originally written in Hebrew (some Aramaic). The New Testament was originally written in Koine Greek.

How to use a Concordance:

1. Look up the word in the alphabetized front section of the concordance. (Remember: If you're using a Strong's concordance, you have to find how the word was translated into English in the KJV. "Concern," vs. 10 in the NIV, is translated "your care" in the KJV, for instance; so you look up "care" in the Strong's concordance).
2. Under the word, look for the verse reference where that specific word is used.
3. Look for the number on the right. Each number corresponds to a Greek or Hebrew word.
4. Turn to the appropriate dictionary or lexicon in the back of the concordance (Hebrew for the Old Testament and Greek for the New Testament).
5. Look up the number for the definition.
6. The words in italic are the definition. Write down the Greek word's transliteration (in English alphabet); and write the definition down next to your key, essential word.

How to Find a Cross References: Using the concordance, compare references in the Bible which use any word or quoted passage of scripture that you determine needs further study—you won't do this with every word, just the ones you feel need additional investigation.

Look in the concordance at the list of all the references given for any word, such as "have plenty," v. 12. Find the same Greek or Hebrew reference number that is given for the Greek or Hebrew word you are examining. For instance, "have plenty" is Strong's #4052 or GK (NIV) #4355. Examine several other verses or all the verses that use the same number. Look up the other scripture references that use the same Greek or Hebrew word to compare the usage of the word. When the same word is studied in more than one account it is understood more fully. In this section alone, this word is used 3 times (have plenty, plenty, even more). A closely related word is translated amply supplied and will meet (same Greek word—Strong's #4137/GK #4444). Don't miss Paul's humor in v. 18 where he writes them a type of receipt for "payment in full," crediting it to their heavenly account.

Here the NIV has translated two related words as share (Strong's #4790/GK #5170) or shared (Strong's #2841/GK #3125). The first word has the second as its root, which is koinoneo, having all things in common, distributing, imparting to one another. A similar word is used in 1:7, share, Strong's #4791, a companion, joint follower, partner of God's grace. All are closely related to the Greek word koinonia (Strong's #2842), the fellowship, unity, and sharing within the church. Koinonia is used in Philippians 1:5, partnership; 2:1, fellowship; and 3:10, fellowship. This type of intimate fellowship is an important truth in this letter—it is modeled by the Trinity and by Christ's supreme example of looking out for the interests of others. His selfless sharing of himself is our model (2:1-11).

In v. 18b, Paul uses language that described the OT sacrifices of God's people: Leviticus 1:3-4, 9, 13, 17; 2:2, 9; 19:5; 22:19-20; Exodus 29:18, 25. These terms make clear Paul's gratitude for their offering and the fact that this gift is given as unto the Lord; Paul is pleased, as is God. Always complete a cross reference study if the definition provided by the concordance is simplistic and the other translations you examine still leave you uncertain about the definition.

This is the: Holman Christian Study Bible, another new translation to use for comparison. The ESV Study Bible site has excellent study notes. These sites are all free.

OPTIONAL: Make an Outline

Consider making an outline of the section or the entire book: Some people find that making an outline opens the text up for them. A simple outline could be made at this point if this is something you find beneficial. The text is provided online in a Word document to help you. Skip it if this doesn't help you.

- Complete a word-for-word outline of each section. If you are the type of person who benefits from this type of structural work, prepare this initial outline skeleton by filling in the theme of the entire book with a theme for paragraph as Roman numerals under the theme of the entire book. Then you can add the text word-for-word under the Romans numerals, with each new paragraph being categorized by a letter of the alphabet.

- C. I thank my God every time I remember you,
  - 1. In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy
    - a. because of your partnership in the gospel
      - i.* from the first day until now,
  - 2. being confident of this,
    - a. that he who began a good work in you will carry it to completion
      - i.* until the day of Christ Jesus.

- Other people find that it helps them to break down the text from the first day they begin to study a book or section of the Bible. Experiment with outline forms or simply breaking down the text in a way that makes grammatical structure more obvious to see if this helps you comprehend more.

Example: Philippians 1:3-5 (NIV)

I thank my God
                   every time I remember you
 In all my prayers
                   for all of you,
                   I always pray with joy
                           because of your partnership in the gospel
   from the first day until now

Day Five: What does it mean (interpretation)? How does this change me (application)?

After completing your word studies with the concordance, integrate all the information you discovered. Pull it all back together.

Identify themes within this section, then define the entire section:

As we worked through Philippians 4:10-23, we meditated on the meaning of all we discovered by observing and questioning the text, completing the word studies, and examining any cross references that were helpful. Therefore, we should now be able to construct a theme for each smaller paragraph that summarizes the content within this section.

Why do this? Just as paraphrasing helped us to ponder on the text and to see if we really comprehended the verse clearly, so stating the theme allows us to pull together the basic ideas of this section so that we retain what we've learned when we go about our daily lives.

This step aids our meditation on scripture by organizing in our minds what's here. See if you can write a concise sentence that summarizes the theme of each paragraph.

Philippians 4:10-23 (NIV, 1984)

Theme of v. 10-13: _____

10 I rejoice greatly in the Lord that at last you have renewed your concern for me. 14 Yet it was good of you to share in my troubles. 15 Moreover, as you Philippians know, in the early days of your acquaintance with the gospel, when I set out from Macedonia, not one church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you only; 16 for even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent me aid again and again when I was in need. 17 Not that I am looking for a gift, but I am looking for what may be credited to your account. 18 I have received full payment and even more; I am amply supplied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent. They are a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God. 19 And my God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.

23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Next, check your conclusions:

You've now finished studying the entire book and can contemplate the whole. It took time. You were patient. Now you can make final interpretation.

Now consult a commentary. Now is the time to check your conclusions. You'll gain from someone else's study by doing this; but remember, commentary notes aren't scripture. Commentators aren't infallible. Opinions will vary.

Good commentaries to use (hard copies are available in the church library):

- The NIV Application Commentary: Philippians, by Frank Thielman, Zondervan.
- The MacArthur New Testament Commentary: Philippians, by John MacArthur, Moody.
- The Epistle to the Philippians, NICNT, by Gordon Fee, Eerdmans.
- The Expositor's Bible Commentary, Abridged Edition, Barker & Kohlenberger III, Zondervan.

Check the online sources to see what commentaries they have. Investigate the commentary sections of these: blueletterbible.org, crosswalk.com, and/or biblegateway.com.

Now what? First put the main points of this letter into your own words.

Now apply it. Let it change you. Begin to live it.

Begin to implement the specific portions which the Holy Spirit moved you to realize were areas of growth necessary for your own life. As you studied, periodically we asked you questions to help you consider how the text might relate to you. Now, consider the questions below to contemplate even further application. What additional applications can you find from this letter?

Consider these personal questions:

1. In coming to 4:10-23, what did I find to be the most significant statements? Why?
2. How can these statements affect my life and change it? How did they relate to the other main points in the letter? What needs to change in my life in order to live a life like this?
3. What specifically does this section tell me about God and Christ Jesus? What is promised?
4. Is there an example here for me to follow? What type of model is provided by Paul and by the Philippians? How can I follow their model?
5. What positive motivations do I find in the passage and the book as a whole that convince me to lead a righteous life?
6. Do any portions of Philippians 4:10-23 produce a sense of conviction within me?
7. Do any parts of this section cause me to want to live differently? How does this conviction connect to the main point of living a life worthy of gospel, a life that looks first to the interests of others? What solid steps am I going to take in that direction?
8. What type of prayer does this final chapter urge as I encounter need? What will result?
9. What practical steps am I taking in order to live a life worthy of the gospel? Am I promoting unity within the church, putting the interests of others ahead of my own, yielding the desire to have my own way, helping to bring peace, rejoicing in all circumstances, remembering and being aware of the Lord's nearness, repenting of anxiety and praying effectively, meditating on what God has directed me to think on, putting the Lord and Master's commands into practice, faithfully supporting my church and those who serve faithfully, and being content with loss or gain? What are the promises when I do?
10. Is there a verse or verses to memorize?

In this section, this final example of the Christian life illustrates the selflessness of Paul and of the Philippian church. Each seeks the benefit of the other—the Philippians through their selfless giving over more than a decade of acquaintance with Paul, since the beginning of the gospel in their lives, and Paul is his gratefulness and concern for their eternal reward, while reassuring them that God will meet all his needs as He will also meet theirs. This letter is a guidebook for church unity and growth. What growth is necessary in your own life? How has reading and studying this book changed you?

In moving forward, don't make these mistakes:

1. Don't substitute interpretation for application and do nothing.
2. Don't substitute superficial obedience for substantive life-change.
3. Don't substitute rationalization for repentance.
4. Don't substitute an emotional experience for a volitional decision to change.
5. Don't substitute communication for transformation and merely talk about what you've learned.<sup>4</sup>

<sup>4</sup> Some of these application ideas are from Living By the Book, Howard G. Hendricks and William D. Hendricks, Moody Press Publishers, Chicago, 2007.

Philippians (NIV, 1984)

Philippians 1

1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus,

To all the saints in Christ Jesus at Philippi, together with the overseers<sup>[a]</sup> and deacons:

2 Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God every time I remember you. 4 In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy 5 because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, 6 being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.

7 It is right for me to feel this way about all of you, since I have you in my heart; for whether I am in chains or defending and confirming the gospel, all of you share in God's grace with me. 8 God can testify how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus.

9 And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, 10 so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ, 11 filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ—to the glory and praise of God.

12 Now I want you to know, brothers, that what has happened to me has really served to advance the gospel. 13 As a result, it has become clear throughout the whole palace guard<sup>[b]</sup> and to everyone else that I am in chains for Christ. 14 Because of my chains, most of the brothers in the Lord have been encouraged to speak the word of God more courageously and fearlessly.

15 It is true that some preach Christ out of envy and rivalry, but others out of goodwill. 16 The latter do so in love, knowing that I am put here for the defense of the gospel. 17 The former preach Christ out of selfish ambition, not sincerely, supposing that they can stir up trouble for me while I am in chains.<sup>[c]</sup> 18 But what does it matter? The important thing is that in every way, whether from false motives or true, Christ is preached. And because of this I rejoice.

Yes, and I will continue to rejoice, 19 for I know that through your prayers and the help given by the Spirit of Jesus Christ, what has happened to me will turn out for my deliverance.<sup>[d]</sup> 20 I eagerly expect and hope that I will in no way be ashamed, but will have sufficient courage so that now as always Christ will be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death. 21 For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain. 22 If I am to go on living in the body, this will mean fruitful labor for me. Yet what shall I choose? I do not know! 23 I am torn between the two: I desire to depart and be with Christ, which is better by far; 24 but it is more necessary for you that I remain in the body. 25 Convinced of this, I know that I will remain, and I will continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith, 26 so that through my being with you again your joy in Christ Jesus will overflow on account of me.

27 Whatever happens, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ. Then, whether I come and see you or only hear about you in my absence, I will know that you stand firm in one spirit, contending as one man for the faith of the gospel 28 without being frightened in any way by those who oppose you. This is a sign to them that they will be destroyed, but that you will be saved—and that by God. 29 For it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for him, 30 since you are going through the same struggle you saw I had, and now hear that I still have.

Philippians 2

2:1 If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, 2 then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose. 3 Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. 4 Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others.

5 Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus:

6 Who, being in very nature[a] God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped,

7 but made himself nothing, taking the very nature[b] of a servant,
being made in human likeness.

8 And being found in appearance as a man,
he humbled himself
and became obedient to death—
even death on a cross!

9 Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name,

10 that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

11 and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Therefore, my dear friends, as you have always obeyed—not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence—continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling, 13 for it is God who works in you to will and to act according to his good purpose.

14 Do everything without complaining or arguing, 15 so that you may become blameless and pure, children of God without fault in a crooked and depraved generation, in which you shine like stars in the universe 16 as you hold out[c] the word of life—in order that I may boast on the day of Christ that I did not run or labor for nothing. 17 But even if I am being poured out like a drink offering on the sacrifice and service coming from your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of you. 18 So you too should be glad and rejoice with me.

19 I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be cheered when I receive news about you. 20 I have no one else like him, who takes a genuine interest in your welfare. 21 For everyone looks out for his own interests, not those of Jesus Christ. 22 But you know that Timothy has proved himself, because as a son with his father he has served with me in the work of the gospel. 23 I hope, therefore, to send him as soon as I see how things go with me. 24 And I am confident in the Lord that I myself will come soon.

25 But I think it is necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker and fellow soldier, who is also your messenger, whom you sent to take care of my needs. 26 For he longs for all of you and is distressed because you heard he was ill. 27 Indeed he was ill, and almost died. But God had mercy on him, and not on him only but also on me, to spare me sorrow upon sorrow. 28 Therefore I am all the more eager to send him, so that when you see him again you may be glad and I may have less anxiety. 29 Welcome him in the Lord with great joy, and honor men like him, 30 because he almost died for the work of Christ, risking his life to make up for the help you could not give me.

Philippians 3

1 Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord! It is no trouble for me to write the same things to you again, and it is a safeguard for you.

2 Watch out for those dogs, those men who do evil, those mutilators of the flesh. 3 For it is we who are the circumcision, we who worship by the Spirit of God, who glory in Christ Jesus, and who put no confidence in the flesh— 4 though I myself have reasons for such confidence.

If anyone else thinks he has reasons to put confidence in the flesh, I have more: 5 circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; in regard to the law, a Pharisee; 6 as for zeal, persecuting the church; as for legalistic righteousness, faultless.

7 But whatever was to my profit I now consider loss for the sake of Christ. 8 What is more, I consider everything a loss compared to the surpassing greatness of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them rubbish, that I may gain Christ 9 and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ—the righteousness that comes from God and is by faith. 10 I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of sharing in his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, 11 and so, somehow, to attain to the resurrection from the dead.

12 Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already been made perfect, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. 13 Brothers, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, 14 I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus.

15 All of us who are mature should take such a view of things. And if on some point you think differently, that too God will make clear to you. 16 Only let us live up to what we have already attained.

17 Join with others in following my example, brothers, and take note of those who live according to the pattern we gave you. 18 For, as I have often told you before and now say again even with tears, many live as enemies of the cross of Christ. 19 Their destiny is destruction, their god is their stomach, and their glory is in their shame. Their mind is on earthly things. 20 But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, 21 who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body.

4:1 Therefore, my brothers, you whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, that is how you should stand firm in the Lord, dear friends!

2 I plead with Euodia and I plead with Syntyche to agree with each other in the Lord. 3 Yes, and I ask you, loyal yokefellow,[a] help these women who have contended at my side in the cause of the gospel, along with Clement and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life.

4 Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! 5 Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. 6 Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. 7 And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things. 9 Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me—put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you.

10 I rejoice greatly in the Lord that at last you have renewed your concern for me. Indeed, you have been concerned, but you had no opportunity to show it. 11 I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. 12 I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. 13 I can do everything through him who gives me strength.

14 Yet it was good of you to share in my troubles. 15 Moreover, as you Philippians know, in the early days of your acquaintance with the gospel, when I set out from Macedonia, not one church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you only; 16 for even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent me aid again and again when I was in need. 17 Not that I am looking for a gift, but I am looking for what may be credited to your account. 18 I have received full payment and even more; I am amply supplied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent. They are a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God. 19 And my God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.

20 To our God and Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Greet all the saints in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me send greetings. 22 All the saints send you greetings, especially those who belong to Caesar's household.

23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.[b]
